Your resume is your first opportunity to make a good first impression, and you don't have much time to make that impression. According to U.S. News & World Report, it takes less than 20 seconds for a hiring manager to make a decision about you based on your resume. Hiring managers need to scan your resume and find the information they need in record time so they can move on to the next resume.

30 Good Resume Words to Include and Avoid

What if we told you we knew a secret weapon to reducing employee turnover?. A study by CareerBuilder found that 50% of employees would stay if they were tangibly recognized. Another study revealed that 40% of employees who "do not feel meaningfully recognized will not go above their formal responsibilities to get the job done.". So how do you show employee appreciation?
