The Seventh-day Adventist Church holds a unique system of eschatological (or end-times) beliefs. Adventist eschatology, which is based on a historicist interpretation of prophecy, is characterised principally by the premillennial Second Coming of Christ. Traditionally, the church has taught that the Second Coming will be preceded by a global crisis with the Sabbath as a central issue.

Question: "Why did God rest on the seventh day of creation (Genesis 2:2)?" Answer: In Genesis 2:2 we read, "And on the seventh day God finished his work that he had done, and he rested on the seventh day from all his work that he had done." If God is omnipotent—if He has all power—it doesn't make much sense that He would need to "rest."
