The great thing I enjoyed the most about this book is the flawed main character, Genevieve Lenard. She has a form of autism that really makes her an interesting character. Young artists are coming up dead with strips of actual paintings placed with their bodies. This one is about Gauguin's Still Life painting that has been forged.

The Gauguin Connection (Genevieve Lenard, #1) by Estelle Ryan

The Gauguin Connection: A Genevieve Lenard Novel. Nothing - not her research, her high IQ or her astounding analytical expertise - ready her for the modifications about to happen in her life. It began as a favour to assist her boss' acerbic good friend look into the homicide of a younger artist, however quickly it proves to be much more complicated.
